

LY

Born in Tokyo. A painter who works primarily in white, black, and gray, depicting cityscapes encountered abroad, as well as imagined streets and landscapes that have existed in her mind since childhood. Within these scenes, a monster named “LUV,” into which she projects her own thoughts and emotions, wanders through the landscape. She studied art from an early age and encountered street art during high school, becoming deeply influenced by the appeal of murals and graffiti. In 2013, she held “PARK’S GRAY,” followed by “OUTSIDE, INSIDE,” in 2018, both at GALLERY TARGET in Tokyo. In 2022, she presented “THIS IS LUV” at SAI in Tokyo, and in 2024, she presented “WE ARE LOVELY MONSTERS MIYASHITA WONDER HOLIDAYS” at RAYARD MIYASHITA PARK in Tokyo. She continues to create murals both in Japan and internationally, with the aim of allowing her murals to take root in the places where they are created and fostering communication with people through walls.